If Gomez has consumption it would be interesting to watch him fight when feeling real well.

So long as the weather man gives us sunshine a great many of his past errors will be overlooked.

As a horrible nightmare the Haskell bill is not likely to be forgotten by the Ohio legislature for many days.

It is presumed that a bill to abolish grand juries might find some favor among certain ex members of the Ohio legislature.

President Cleveland does not like the Davis resolution enunciating the Monroe doctrine. He says it is "mischievous, inopportune and unfortunate."

The Chicago council has passed an ordinance limiting each person in the city to six dogs. It is supposed this action will reduce the number of dogs in the city.

Injunction cases against the city continue to pile up at the court house. City officials, it is understood, do not sleep well when a day is passed without a new case.

It is said that Foraker, Bushnell, Hanna and Grosvenor will be Ohio's big four at the St. Louis convention. Aside from being big enough they would represent perfect harmony among Ohio Republicans.

Hon. Bill Gear, who was one of the ex-senators recently indicted by the Franklin county grand jury, says he will talk when the time comes, and those who know William think there is no doubt of it.

Hon. James S. Spear, representative in the Ohio legislature from Clinton county, is another "horrible example" of a man who is apparently guilty of cutting prices on honesty. To solicit a bribe of $300 looks very cheap.

"We want no more presidents from Ohio," says Tom Platt. The "we" in this case means Tom Platt, and Tom is supposed to have some unpleasant memories of presidents from Ohio who did not run things to suit Boss Platt.

An Indiana sheriff Sunday alone stood off a mob of lynchmen who had broken into the jail. A promise to shoot the first man who made a move toward the cell did the business. Backbone has come to be one of the essentials of a good sheriff.

WAS THE ENTERTAINMENT MONDAY NIGHT BY GLENVILLE P. KLEISER.

And a Small Audience Present To Hear the Impersonator Who Proves To Be An Artist in Every Sense of the Word—A Synopsis of the Play.

The fourth entertainment presented by the Star lecture course was an artistic if not a financial success.

Although but a small audience greeted Glenville P. Kleiser, the impersonator, at the Young Men's Christian Association auditorium, Monday evening, those present were most highly entertained all covetly wishing that their friends were out to share the treat with them.

The major portion of the evening's entertainment was a monologue in three acts and six scenes entitled "The American Cousin," in which Mr. Kleiser portrayed a dozen characters with a degree of skill sufficient to keep up the interest from start to finish.

"The American Cousin" is the story of an English family which has been divided, one branch remaining in old England while the other emigrated to New England.

The old world branch of the family, consisting of a father, Lord Trenchard, his daughter, Florence, and her cousin, Mary, are about to be dispossessed of their home and lands through the machinations of the agent, Clyde, who married the father of Lord Trenchard before him.

A mortgage for £50,000 pounds executed to Clyde, the elder, by Lord Trenchard's father, on the estate is discovered by Clyde with a separate release duly executed, but the latter secretes the release and uses the mortgage as a lever to bring it about that Florence shall become his wife.

At this stage Asa Trenchard, the American cousin, appears on the scene and at once falls in love with Mary. He has in his possession the will of the deceased ancestor by the terms of which will he inherits the entire estate.

Asa brings about the appointment of the lover of Florence, Henry Vernore, to the command of a ship, making their marriage possible, tears up the will, thus debarring himself from securing the estate for love of Mary, wins Mary's love by the act and, assisted by a tutor, who was a former of Florence but who is now a wreck from drink, and a clerk in Clyde's employ, finds the secreted release and brings Clyde, the villain, to time.

Since Asa is the rightful owner of the property and Lord Trenchard's father was not when the mortgage, that paper was absolutely valueless and the easiest way to have circumvented the villain would have been for Asa to have taken possession of the property and quietly held on. But why find fault with the story, especially since it is a recognized fact that the playwright is ever at liberty to frame laws to fit the case?

Mr. Kleiser, though but a young man, is a genius and his portrayal of the various characters was fully as interesting as if the play had been costumed and played by the average troupe.

Following "The American Cousin," Mr. Kleiser gave a pathetic, yet comical, speech entitled "Matrimony" and closed with a farcical effort entitled "His First Effort," in both of which he showed how really rare was his genius.

The polo game at Marion Saturday night was, so the boys claim, one of the rainiest that was ever played. They say everything went along smoothly until about ten minutes before the game was called it stood then 7 to 2 in favor of Crestline. The Marion boys not wishing to be defeated again in their own rink began striking right and left, injuring three of our boys badly, one was hurt so badly that he had to be carried out of the rink and at last it came near winding up in a free-for-all fight. During the ten minutes the Marion team made 7 goals which gave them the game. They are scheduled to play here next Saturday, and if they come any of their monkey shins they will no doubt meet with a warm reception.—Crestline Cor Bureau Telegraph.

INTEREST UNABATED.

The Revival Services at the Christian Church Attracting Large Audiences.

Another great audience gathered at the Christian church last night and at the close of the services there were a number of confessions.

Mr. Lhamon's sermon was on the subject, "The Word Made Flesh." He said Christ is God's law incarnate. The love of Christ is God's love, the thought of Christ is God's thought, the will of Christ is God's will.

In Christ God's law has a heart to love us, a brain to think for us and to teach us right thoughts, and a hand to uplift and guide us. In Christ God's word becomes our brother. In His face we see the father. Theology gets things backwards. It begins with an abstract God and speculates. Hence all sorts of ologies and isms. Christianity begins with Christ, and studies God as revealed in Him, and men as loved by Him. If you are a Christian you can do as you like about theology. Christ will keep you so near to God that you won't need to speculate about Him.

As to creeds—well, Christ is our creed and He doesn't need revising.
His life is inerrant and it is our model.
His word is infallible and it is our law.
In His infallibility He is unique.

His glory is the glory of the only begotten of God, and we are privileged to see it so if we but look.

Tonight and tomorrow night Mr.
Lhamon will give companion sermons with the aid of a fine chart on Christ's commission and the apostolic conversions.

BROUGHT HIM BACK.

S. C. Fairchild, an Escaped Prisoner, in Jail Again.

Sheriff Shaw arrived home Monday night from Lancaster with S. C. Fairchild, the escaped prisoner, and he is again behind the bars at the county jail.

Fairchild at one time resided in the neighborhood of Lancaster and after he made his escape went back to that neighborhood. One of his acquaintances read the article in the papers in regard to his escape, and gave the tip to an officer there, who arrested him.

Sheriff Shaw endeavored to get him to relate the manner in which the delivery was made, who helped them and other particulars in regard to the escape. The man refused to say anything in regard to the matter, and would not talk. He said that they scattered as soon as they got out, but further than that had nothing to say.

It was reported that Patsy McCue had been seen in the city for the past few days, and again it is reported that both he and Doodle Snyder are in Birmingham, Alabama, at the present time.

RAILROAD NOTES.

W. W. Cannady, the telegraph operator, has been sent back here and is working nights at the Big Four.

The Big Four is making surveys for a line from Harrison, O., through Hamilton to some point between Middletown and Dayton.

For the third week in January the Columbus, Sandusky and Hocking shows the following decrease in earnings: 1895, $19,215.56; 1896, $15,911.83; decrease, $3,215.03.

Officials of the Erie railway, it is learned, are planning to put on suburban trains through Warren, Niles, Girard and Youngstown at cheap fares to get some of the large business on the Valley electric railway.

The National Car and Locomotive Builder has been consolidated with the American Engineer, Car Builder and Railroad Journal. It will be published monthly under the editorial supervision of M. N. Forney, assisted by Waldo H. Marshall.

A high compliment has been paid the annual report of State Railroad and Telegraph Commissioner Kirby by Loore, the railroad statistician and publisher, who describes the report as one of the most complete he has ever seen. This praise reflects great credit on the office statistician, Mr. Charles Moore. The report was issued 60 days earlier than usual.

A Youngstown special says: Calvin S.
Brice, who is trying to secure right of way through this city for Pittsburgh, Akron and Western railroad, will attempt through the courts to secure the old Pennsylvania and Ohio canal bed, now owned by the Erie railroad, and upon which it is operating a line, claiming that the New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio railroad, which secured the canal property, had no authority under its corporate powers to purchase it.

The Erie suit will open an expensive litigation, as the Erie will make a sharp fight.

A number of Erie officials, among whom were G. A. Allen, superintendent at Galion, and C. W. Clark, division freight agent, were in Springfield, last week in conference with L. Rush Brockenbaugh, traffic manager, and A. J. Dunham, general manager of the Ohio Southern. Mr. Brockenbaugh said: "The men here today are only getting the lay of the land and the higher officials will be here soon. The Erie will undoubtedly come into Springfield. We don't propose to make any opposition. Their engineers have been all over the ground several times, and everything is in readiness." The Erie will purchase or lease part of the Ohio Southern and enter the city over that line. A depot will be built on the north side. The Erie now runs three miles outside of Springfield and crosses the Ohio Southern in the west side.

AGAIN THE SUMMONS

ANOTHER PIONEER PASSES TO THE GREAT BEYOND.

James S. Reed, the Banker, Died at 10 O'clock This Morning After a Short Illness—A Man of Prominence in Financial, Social and Church Circles.

James S. Reed died at his home on east Church street this morning at 10 o'clock after a short illness from a complication of diseases, the weight of years having not a little to do with the fatal result.

For some time Mr. Reed has been poorly but his condition was not considered critical until about a week ago, since which time the chances for recovery were most uncertain.

The deceased was born April 13, 1810, and consequently was in his seventy-seventh year and the oldest banker in the city by several, which was ever considered with a just degree of pride by the deceased in his lifetime.

Mr. Reed took much pride in his ancestry and traced it back to old England a paternal ancestor, William Reed (the name was at that time spelled Read) having sailed from Gravesend, Kent county, England, in 1635, and settled in Weymouth, Mass. From this source sprang the American branch of a family which had, in the old country, been one of social prominence.

Mr. Reed's grandfather, Benjamin Reed, served through the entire Revolutionary war as an officer and his grandfather on his mother's side, Amasa Smith, was at West Point a captain of a militia.

In the boyhood days of the deceased his parents, James and Sophronia Reed, moved to New York City and educated him for a mercantile business which, as a clerk, he followed until 1839, when he came to Marion where he engaged in the dry goods business on Main street, opposite the court house.

Five years later his parents followed him to this city, residing here till the time of their deaths, his mother having died in 1854, his father in 1881, having attained the grand old age of ninety-eight.

In December, 1841, Mr. Reed married Miss N. A. Holmes, a daughter of Samuel Holmes, one of the founders of the town, and three children were born of the marriage, Sophronia, who married John Williams, of Chicago, James H., of this city, and Sarah E., who married James Delano, of Boston, all of the children being yet in life.

Shortly after his marriage Mr. Reed began a private banking business in connection with his store, but in 1859 he retired from the store and devoted his attention to banking, which was his occupation through life, he having held the position of president of The Marion County Bank company at the time of his death.

Besides being very prominent in financial circles Mr. Reed had been for years active in the affairs of St. Paul's Episcopal church, of which he was a member, and in lodge circles, having held the highest chair in the local lodge of Elks and belonging to Marion Lodge, No. 70, F. and A. M., and Marion Council, No. 22, L. and S. M.

During his lifetime Mr. Reed was not only in Marion known as a man of high social, financial and fraternal standing but also throughout the county as a shrewd and careful business man, his position as adjuster for several

CAME HOME TO DIE

GEORGE N. CRAWFORD SEEKS HIS FRIENDS IN MARION.

He Dies at the Home of M. V. Payne.
Twenty Years Spent in the West with More or Less Success—Attorney and Politician.

George N. Crawford died at 3 o'clock this morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Payne, on Columbia street.

George N. Crawford was an attorney at law, had been a judge on the common pleas bench, served in both branches of the legislatures in Idaho and Nebraska, was spoken of for governor of some of the western territories, and has been a very prominent man, and was associated with some of the brightest politicians and attorneys in the West for the past twenty years.

Of late, however, his friends here knew but little of the man. In his early days he studied law with M. V. Payne, in Gallatin, Ohio, and afterward moved to Nebraska and resided at Omaha for many years. He also resided in the western territories for many years, and served in numerous positions for the government in that section of the country.

He returned to Nebraska afterwards and again settled in Omaha, although he came from Columbus, Nebraska, here He was married at one time, but the members of his family are all dead.

Some four years ago, while riding with a friend in Omaha, a team of horses ran away, and he was thrown from the rig.
Since that time he has been ill much of the time.

Two weeks ago last Friday he arrived here, and was then in a dying condition, and came here to die with friends.
He was never able to tell Mr. Payne but little about himself. Several times he endeavored to tell him something, and wanted to speak to him, but was never able to make him understand what was wanted.

It is not known whether he owned property or not. Mr. Payne was investigating his effects today to try and ascertain something definite in regard to the man. Among his private papers were letters from Hoke Smith, and other public men, and a large number of papers and letters in regard to his appointment of some western territory, but there was no evidence to show whether he was successful or not.

WILL INCORPORATE.

Papers Filed by the Ohio Bicycle Manufacturing Company.

Articles of incorporation for The Ohio Bicycle Manufacturing Company, of Marion, were filed with the secretary of state today. The incorporators of this new industrial company are B. F.
Shurtz, A. C. Edmondson, E. Huber, H. R. Bolander and Charles Kauffman.
It is proposed to incorporate with a capital stock of $15,000.

It is expected that the company will be organized at once, and a force of twenty or twenty-five men put to work to make all the wheels possible for the coming season's trade. Messrs. Bol-lander and Kauffman, who have been in the business of manufacturing bicycles, already have thirty wheels ready for the market, all high-grade machines, which are selling like hot cakes. A successful business is predicted for the new concern.

Mr. Bolander has had a flattering offer to take the works to Converse, Ind., but he prefers to remain in Marion, with all things favorable.

Birthday Celebration.

Monday, January 27, at the beautiful home of Wm. Herrington, Mrs. Pura Swick celebrated her 83d birthday anniversary. She apparently seems as well and happy as she did 50 years ago, and at 5:30 p. m. was ready to partake of a bountiful spread that had been prepared for the occasion. One thing that added greatly to the evening's enjoyment was music rendered by the Imperial orchestra. Among the guests present were M. S. N. Swick and wife and Mr. A. J. Smith and wife, of Delaware.

REMARKABLE SCENES.

Indian's Prison North Undergoing a Religious Revival.

Warden Harley of the Prison North, Michigan City, Ind., thinks it Chaplain Curri of that institution maintains the good work he is doing among the convicts for a few years more, the warden and all the prison employees will be out of a job.

"It is remarkable," said he, "the good that man is doing with men whom one would think could not be reached by any influence to lead a better life.
The most depraved men—Respectables, burglars and murderers—have succumbed to the good parson's preaching, the tidings of peace on earth and good will to men."

"Their manners have improved, their obedience to rules of the prison is more general and from a score of cells come the singing of gospel hymns."

"Hundreds of convicts pray just before going to bed at night and begin the day with prayer. Reading the Bible and religious papers is a daily occupation with them, and they do it with interest and sincerity. The chaplain has the utmost confidence of the convicts. They tell him their troubles, hopes and purposes."

"If they want anything, they send for him, and he does it for them with cheerfulness and readiness. I have known him to get out of bed at midnight walk a mile and a half to do some trivial service for a convict, and the worse the man's nature the more ready he is to serve him."

The chaplain has 300 convicts in his Christian Endeavor society, and the few months he has had the position has received into the church 130 members, who on their release from prison have pledged to unite with the church of their choice. Among the 130 some are Methodists, others Presbyterians, still more Baptists and Lutherans. The chapel services on Sunday are always largely attended. A convict plays the organ, and the singing is led by a convict choir.

and the testimonies of hope and salvation are strong, full and heartfelt. The other Sunday the chaplain administered the sacrament to 109 convicts, each receiving it in his cell, taking the sacred bread and wine through the bars from the good parson, who knelt at the cell door outside while the communicant knelt within.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

A SECOND INJUNCTION

Secured Against the City and Others by George Roberts.

George Roberts, by his attorneys, Johnston & Young, today secured another injunction against the city of Marion restraining the city or U. K. Guthrie, auditor, or C. W. Leffler, treasurer, from collecting the assessment at present standing against his property on Gospel Hill for the improvement of State street from Fair-ground street to Delaware avenue.

Mr. Roberts says that in his hands is a house appraised at $3760 and that the premises could not be assessed at a greater value than $4767, that for this street improvement he has been assessed $3250.32 and asks for an injunction pending hearing of the case.

A temporary injunction was granted by Judge Smalley upon the plaintiff giving bond in the sum of $500.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

Company G held its customary weekly drill Monday night.

The county commissioners were at Delaware today in joint session with the Delaware county board.

The Cinch club will entertain at the home of Mrs. Alice Crow, of west Church street, this evening.

Candle mass will be celebrated at St. Mary's church next Sunday forenoon, and preparations for that event are now being made.

The steam heating apparatus, electric light wires, etc., have been placed in the new Darmody building and the work on the interior is progressing rapidly.

The city school board met at its office in the High school building, Monday night, but no business was transacted of sufficient importance to merit publication.

The case of M. B. Chase against D. L. Cuckley has been settled in the court of Squire Osburn. Mr. Cuckley paid the full amount of the judgment and half of the costs.

The attachment case against J. F. Wickwer was settled in the court of Squire McKinley this morning. The case was brought by J. W. Osburn, chief clerk of the Chicago and Erie, to satisfy a claim of $30.16.

J. E. VanOstran, the Erie brakeman injured at Dublin last Friday night, is getting along nicely. He has been taken to his father's home at Osborne. He fell off the back end of a car, and it was a miracle that he did not lose his life.

A son of William Everly received a pretty severe fall this morning at the quarries. He was on his way to school and in some manner slipped and fell. At first it was feared there were internal injuries, but he only sustained a few bruises.

General J. C. Whittaker, department commander of Ohio of the Patriarchs Militant and grand master-elect of the subordinate lodge of Odd Fellows, will be in the city Friday evening. His visit here will be to discuss the coming encampment to be held in this city next summer.

F. E. White today shipped a pen of Golden Wyandot chickens to Toledo to be shown there at a poultry show, at which birds from all over the United States and Canada are being exhibited. Mr. White has received the highest award on his chickens of any yet shown in the state.

Samuel Jones, colored, was the medium that attracted a goodly sized crowd on north Main street Monday afternoon. Samuel was playing cards in a saloon, when his wife came in and taking him by the ear waltzed Samuel out. She did not propose to have her husband indulge in card playing.

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church met at the church parlors Monday night and heard the report of the standing committees. After the business meeting was over ice and macaroons were served and a merry social session had by the society members.

MINISTERS' MEETING

DIVINES OF THE LUTHERAN CHURCH IN SESSION.

Christian Themes Discussed by Pastors in Attendance at the Conference Now Being Held in This City—A List of Those Present.

There is a notable gathering of ministers in the city today to attend the conference of the Lutheran church. The ministers began to arrive Monday evening, but the first session of the conference opened this morning at 8 o'clock at the Lutheran church on south State street, with Rev. J. Dingeldey, of Cleveland, presiding, and Rev. J. Kreplin, of Homerville, as secretary. The opening session was quite an interesting one, and Rev. H. Sutter, of Galion, prepared a thesis on the Holy Scriptures, which was read and discussed with great interest to the ministers in attendance at the conference.

The following subjects were discussed on this line: "The Bible is the inspired word of God." "The Bible is the only means of Divine revelation." "The Bible is the sole measure of salvation." The author emphasized that there is but one God, the Father, Son and Holy Ghost. God has revealed Himself to man for his salvation, at times by direct communication, then by sending prophets to speak in His name, and finally by having His will received in unity.

This afternoon Rev. A. J. Nicklas spoke on Christ's Promises, of Signs following them that believe. Rev. Nicklas took his text from Mark 16, 17, 18. He touched on the subject of christian science, which was thoroughly discussed by the ministry. This evening, at 7 o'clock, there will be a general sermon in German, and the serving of the holy communion. All are invited to attend the services. The following is the list of the ministers in attendance: F. W. Abecht, Marysville, E. Ahl, Ashland, E. Bailey, Attica, J. Barthelmas, McVena, G. Dillman, Fostoria, J. Dingeldey, Cleveland, R. Graetz, Geneva, F. W. Helle, Upper Sandusky, J. Koepf, Homerville, L. Ties, Crestline, L. F. Mettler, Cardington, A. L. Nicklas, Marion, D. Simon, Prospect, H. Sutter, Galion, S. Schilling, Chatfield, W. Weisman, Marion. As distinguished guest, Rev. C. H. L. Schutte, president of the Lutheran Joint Synod of Ohio.

The conference is being entertained by the following members of the congregation: E. Denny, Cherry street; Mrs. C. Rutherford, Bellefontaine avenue; George Schoenlaub, Pearl street; J. F. Lust, south Main street; Jacob Schoenlaub, south State street; Wesley Harsch, Silver street; Mrs. H. Bausinger, south Main street; W. Weisman, Bellefontaine avenue; Rev. A. L. Nicklas, Cherry street.

MORE WARRANTS EXPECTED.

The Outrage of the Hindeman Girl May Develop Further Sensations.

Probably the charges made against Ford Ramsey by Joseph Hindeman, who issued a warrant for him on the charge of criminally assaulting Princess Hindeman, his 12-year-old daughter, will result in a big sensation. Ramsey is not the only guilty party, and others will be obliged to suffer.

As yet the indignant father has not sworn to warrants for the arrest of any one but Ramsey, but there are said to be one or two married men who will be brought into the matter. It is also reported that two of her assailants have left this part of the country, and one of them has a wife and two children. The girl was working at his house at the time that he assaulted her. Her condition is improving, but the father is still frantic and swears vengeance on the men who are to blame for the girl's ruin.

On Saturday Hindeman met one of the men who had committed the outrage on his daughter and made him admit that he did it. Hindeman then came to this city and wanted to secure a revolver and take revenge on the man. He was persuaded, however, not to do this, but to take a course of law for his revenge. He says that if the laws are not rigid enough to prosecute them that he will take the matter in his own hands.

The LaRue Oil Field. The Philadelphia Oil and Gas company has leased all of the territory that is needed in the neighborhood of LaRue, and will begin putting down wells in April.

The company expects to start six wells at first, and then if these prove successful several more will be put down. This is the first company to complete leasing lands, but other companies are still leasing territory, and expect to begin drilling in the spring.

Who Does This Bit? We have two lots to sell, adjoining each other and situated near center of city. They are well improved with fruit and shrubbery and well drained with 12-inch tile. Will sell both, for cash, for less than the worth of one if sold by Feb. 15. See W. F. Bull or A. A. Rhoads, at Star office.

NEXT SUNDAY

Evangelists Potter and Miller Will Begin Their Revival Meetings.

Messrs. Potter and Miller, of Chicago, will begin their labors in Marion next Sunday. Thus far five churches have united in the meetings to be conducted by them—Evangelical, M. E., Free Baptist, German M. E. and Presbyterian. Perhaps no series of meetings have ever been looked forward to with so much expectation.

Mr. D. W. Potter is a Chicago business man who has been engaged in evangelistic services more or less every year for twenty years, and has been very successful wherever he has labored. In Chicago he has frequently been spoken of as the "second Moody." He is said to be a strong, practical preacher, and a most skillful manager of revival services. For fifteen years he was connected with the board of managers of the Chicago Y. M. C. A. and he was at one time president of the Chicago Sunday School Union.

Mr. Miller is the singer and has been associated with Mr. Potter for the past twelve years. Previous to that time he was associated with Mr. Moody in some of his large meetings. Those who have heard Mr. Miller speak of him as one of the most effective gospel singers of our day.

These gentlemen are just closing a two weeks' campaign at Albion, Michigan, and the papers speak of the meeting as the greatest in interest and results ever known in that city. Other engagements that they have held this season have been in Washington, D. C., Milwaukee and Chicago. Marion is to be congratulated in that she has secured such able and successful evangelists, and it is to be hoped that they will be given the fullest and most enthusiastic co-operation from the first.

The Woman's Club.

The Ladies of the Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. Fribley Monday afternoon. Answers to roll call were made by quotations from Washington Irving. Great interest is being manifested by the ladies of the club, and the weekly meetings are a matter of pleasant contemplation. Following were the subjects of papers read at the meeting of Monday afternoon:

"Prominent Characteristics of New York," by Miss Taylor.

"Up the Hudson," by Mrs. Arthur Powell.

Washington Irving, by Miss Vose.
